ABOUT US

Centurion Country Club forms part of the Residential Estate and first opened the course to the public on 14 October 1997.

This centrally located 160-hectare Estate and Country Club captures the natural beauty of its neighbouring quaint village, Irene, and offers hospitality and old-fashioned values on a well-designed course. The course has three unique features in that it has parkland areas, desert areas and then numerous holes surrounded by water expertly designed by Peter Matkovich to ensure an incredible variety of shots and challenging any golfer's game.
